On this day we proclaim that he, the Lord of our life, is “the resurrection and the life” of the world. Today is Easter, the Pasch, a word that means “passage,” for in Jesus the decisive passage of humanity has been made: the passage from death to life, from sin to grace, from fear to confidence, from desolation to communion in him. In him, the Lord of time and history, I would like to say to everyone, with heartfelt joy, happy Easter to all!

- Pope Francis' urbi et orbi blessing for Easter 2023

An Easter Prayer for Loved Ones

Lord, I ask you to bless all my family and friends this Easter, those nearest and dearest, but also those I may have neglected or I feel furthest from.

As flowers spring up after dull winter to bring joy to our hearts, so may the joy of Easter lighten the hearts of my loved ones and may your peace find a welcome in their homes.

How I wish for them all to know and treasure the gift of your love, to find real happiness, real joy in you! Amen.

KEEP IN PRAYER the recently deceased members:
Patrick McGlone, Catherine Sweeney, Angus McFarlane, Catherine McCulloch, M. Catherine Lavery, Wilma McQuade, Christopher P. Loy, Patricia Rennie, Sylvia Coupland, RIP. Always in our minds!

The sick and housebound would appreciate a copy of the bulletin, if you can please pop one through their door. Thank you.

 A man who only attended church on Christmas and Easter was running late. He squeezed into a crowded pew just as the choir finished. After the service, the pastor shook his hand at the door and said, "We only see you twice a year! You need to join the army of the Lord!" The man whispered back, "I'm already in the army, Pastor. I'm just in the secret service."
