

A SYMPHONY OF PRAYER FOR SCOTLAND

Father,

*we, who are Your beloved children
we, who are here in Your magnificent, majestic and fragile world
send our collective love to You, our God, our Dad.*

*Enable us, through Your Holy Spirit to bring the fulfilment of all that You wish and have dreamt for us.
Enable us to walk in the spiritual paths of Your Holy Words,
our sacred scripture,
and inspired Words to all people of good faith.*

*Feed the needy with Your mana, the Bread of Life, and feed the hungry with the bread gleaned from the earth -
which is vital and nourishes our sisters and brothers who are bereft.
You called us to tenderly care for, in awe and wonder, the lands we walk and rely on for life - help us to do so in pathways that are lasting and just.
We are sorry for the all the darkness we have brought into Your world which was, and is still, made of light, hope and joy.*

We pray for more light, hope and joy.

*Help us to reconcile our brothers and sisters in the paths of peace and eternal unity.
And, as You have already redeemed us through the sacrifice of Your Son, our God, help us to accept that freedom:*

that redemption.

*May we be truly metanoia(ised)
changed...redirected*

and make the roads that lead us to evil be permanently closed to Your pilgrim weans.

Take the collective hands of your children and lead us to be light to the nations of the earth, whatever faith pathways we have travelled, travel and will travel.

Our Father,

Dad,

God of Light, Hope and Joy...and the music of life....

... make us grow as a pilgrim beacon, singers of Your Truth, musicians who follow the Maestro who orchestrates the Universe...

May we become a symphony of prayer and prayer-ers

on the pathways to discovering the mystery of Your Love and the depths and heights Your loving plan for us.
